

Canadian Council of Technicians and Technologists

Declaration of Professional Development Activities (within past 5 years)

Name:

IntET(Canada) Application #:

Date:

Date	Activity Type	Provider	Hours

Examples of Activity Types (including but not limited to)

- Professional Practice
- Professional development programs, courses and seminars
- Courses offered by universities, technical institutes, colleges, suppliers, employers or technical societies
- Courses offered in traditional classroom settings or by correspondence, video or online
- Self-directed study
- Attendance at conferences and industry trade shows
- Seminars, technical presentations, talks and workshops
- Attendance at meetings of technical, professional or managerial associations or societies
- Structured peer discussion of technical or professional issues
- Mentoring a Member-in-Training, less-experienced professional member or technologist
- Service on public bodies that require professional expertise (e.g. planning boards, development appeal boards, investigative commissions, review panels or community building committees)
- Service on standing or adhoc committees of a technical or professional nature or managerial associations and societies
- Presentations at conferences, meetings, courses, workshops or seminars
- Presentations within a company or at an event sponsored by a technical or professional organization